

The New London Heritage Historical Society announces the publication of:

“Chicago & North Western Railroad History at New London, Wisconsin”

By Scott Sasse

History of the Chicago & North Western Railway at New London, Wisconsin, in 8.5” x 11” paperback with color cover, 144 pages, 96 b/w photos, 12 timetables, railroad advertising and newspaper accounts from the 1870’s to today including:

- ✦ Birth of the Appleton & New London Railroad
- ✦ Arrival and construction of Milwaukee Lake Shore & Western Railroad
- ✦ Description of local industrial users of rail
- ✦ Passenger trains including special Chicago to New London ski trains
- ✦ Green Bay & Western activities at New London Junction
- ✦ Station and Central Agency Carload statistics
- ✦ Post-C&NW events, FRVR, WC and CN
- ✦ Floor plans for the 1876 and 1923 stations and 1882 Junction depot

Copies of the book may be purchased at the New London Area Chamber of Commerce office, New London Library, or the Heritage Historical Village for $17.00 or ordered through the mail for $20 postpaid. For mail-order, make the check payable to the New London Heritage Historical Society and mail it with your name, address, and phone number to:

New London Historical Society
c/o 101 E. Beckert Rd., Apt 204
New London, WI 54961

Proceeds benefit the New London heritage Historical Society